

Mentor Text - Cause-Effect Explanation

When we make the frequency of a wave high, the wavelength becomes short. This is because the waves are squeezed closer together. As a result, more waves move past in one second.